absent from duty but only on tour and strictly speaking there is no vacancy. A practice has sprung up in this department of giving such allowances. In no other department is there such a practice. According to the Economy Order also charge allowance should ordinarily be not paid, even though they may be admissible under the M.S.R. As in the present case the charge allowance is inadmissible under the M.S.R., it becomes doubly inadmissible."

18 The First Member has agreed with the above view and orders have issued accordingly. (vide linked file).

19 On the principle enunciated above, no charge allowance is admissible in this case as Mr. Mekhri was absent on duty.
